PROGRAMS

The Society holds seven scheduled meetings a year on the third Saturday of each month from September thru May (except December and January) at various locations throughout the state. Members can meet with others of similar interests and enjoy a variety of speakers and panels on genealogy and history.

CONTRIBUTIONS, GIFTS, AND BEQUESTS

The United States Treasury Department through the Internal Revenue Service has ruled that this Society is a Tax Exempt Educational (Genealogical) Organization within the meaning of Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions and gifts to the Connecticut Society of Genealogists, Inc. (over and above dues) are tax deductible by the donor for Federal Income and Gift Tax purposes. They will be accepted by the Secretary and Treasurer and deposited in savings accounts. Testamentary bequests are also deductible for purposes of Federal and State Estate Tax returns. Contributions and donations are greatly appreciated.
